MANI: So if we don't keep your faith, attention and focus, constantly on Him, He's very, I mean He'll just blink like that!

One day I had a dream, that's what I think of the painting you sent for all.

PILGRIM 1: It's beautiful.

MANI: And I saw long white steps, you know, wide like this. Is that called long or is it called wide?

PILGRIM 2: Wide

MANI: But not broad, you know, not broad steps. Steps, steps, steps, steps, narrow, narrow, narrow! Beautiful steps! You know, like you see in a beautiful construction not just, maybe marble, wide, wide, steps, steps and on the top is a platform, you know like a flat thing. That's of marble, beautiful!

And in the centre, there's a circle, circle of the same thing and on it, Baba is standing. Big, majestic, so big!

And I am at the bottom of the steps and I look up at the steps and I'm looking up at Him. His back is turned but He's there, I figure Baba's there!

And I say, "Oh Baba!" But His back is towards and then I suddenly realise very, very slowly, that circle is revolving, so Baba is turning, very slowly and I dare not even blink!

Looking, it's turning, it's turning, it's turning and now when it turns right now, that's when He'll see me, that's when I will be able to see Him! So I go on staring, staring. At last Baba turns and His full face and I see Him, and He sees me and I see Him. Just like that and I wake up.

That's when I want to say. Now, we may feel Baba's back is turned. He's moving, let's keep on that all the time, because you never know when that second, when He's looking at you, you may be looking elsewhere! That moment will be gone!
